Charges are: Aggravated Assault, Hindering Apprehension or prosecution, Unlawful restraint, Simple assault, recklessly endangering another person, and criminal mischief.

Tabares was the driver and Achstetter was the front seat passenger of a black 2011 Toyota Camry 4 door with Maryland registration 4AG6940.

Both are considered arm and dangerous.

Jenny Kim, Asian female, age 38, 5'3", 140 pounds, brown eyes, black hair, was in the back seat and is wanted for questioning. No charges have been filed against Kim.

Officer Michael Storeman was called to investigate suspicious people in a vehicle. The vehicle was parked in the parking lot of the Convenience Store in Glen Rock. When he arrived he located the vehicle parked on Water St. He approached the vehicle and observed a female slumped over in the back and two male subjects in the front. The male subjects began to make movements and Officer Storeman attempted to open the passenger door. The passenger (Achstetter) grabbed Officer Storeman's arm and pulled him towards the vehicle while the driver (Tabares) rapidly accelerated. Officer Storeman was dragged down Water St. and his body struck a stopped vehicle causing him to slide across the roadway. Officer Storeman was taken to the York Hospital Trauma Room and was later discharged with multiple injuries.

Anyone with information about the wanted people are asked to call Southern Regional Police at 717-840-2971.
