

Arrest – Multiple Charges

Nature of Incident: See Below
Date of Incidents: January 20, 2017
Location of Incident: Shrewsbury Borough and Township
Person Involved: Sherry Ann TRAVIS

On 1/20/2017 at 09:05 am Officers from Southern Regional Police received information that a female was approaching customers at stores asking for money and driving erratically at Shrewsbury Commons in Shrewsbury Twp. Officers located the female at the Rutter's Farm Store on S. Main St. in Shrewsbury Borough pumping gasoline. She initially denied requesting money and produced a Maryland ID when asked.

During the investigation officers determined that the female produced a stolen driver's license out of Maryland and provided false identification to police. The vehicle she was operating was a rental vehicle. Once her identity was obtained officers determined that the female had an active warrant for drug violations.

ARRESTED:

Sherry Ann TRAVIS, age 53, Glen Echo Rd, Glen Rock (Codorus Twp)

CHARGES:

Identity theft, Receiving stolen property, False identification to law enforcement, disorderly conduct, and exhibiting another driver's license.

TRAVIS was arraigned at District Court 19-3-04 and released on her own recognizance.
