POLICE CHIEF REPORT

- School coverage time has increased in February; January's lower numbers reflected snow and school closings.
- Officer Storeman continues to be on light duty; he's been doing an excellent job solving cases during this time.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Personnel

- Pete Schnabel provided a monthly calendar page for Commission members to write down the best days and times to meet. From this information, Pete plans to schedule future meetings.

Facilities & Equipment

- Nate Kirschman reports that progress with the phone system continues, however some more work needs done. How much of the $3000 allocation has been spent?
- The SRO office at Kennard Dale is essentially a maintenance room with a great deal of interference. This problem has been solved with a microcell (providing a four-channel cell site); allowing Officer Carey to receive calls in the office and anywhere in the school. Because this microcell was plugged into the school's network, there was no cost for this device.

- Overall balance = $270,433.25; accounts receivable = $61,669.00
- Overtime is 11.52% over budget due to a continued officer shortage.
- Ammo expense is high due to qualifying requirements for new officers, as well as spring qualification.

Formula

- The committee had a productive meeting last night; on track to have a final report to municipalities by June.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT

- Peter Ruth is working with Sergeant Smuck on developing a Ballistic Vest Reimbursement Policy. Specifics will be forthcoming as details finalize.
